- 60+ events organized
- Themes include A.I., IoT, Open Source, Python Programming, Machine Learning, Blockchain, Version Control Systems, Augmented Reality/ Virtual Reality, Game Development, Professional Resources, Book Writing etc
- In addition, we help groom public speaking skills for our speakers and also help edit job/scholarship/fellowship applications for our members.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT US..

Fastest growing community in India. Be it IOT, Gaming, AR/VR/MR, Machine Learning, Deep Learning, AI, full stack developers, designers. Women are full of enthusiasm. Met some of best women entrepreneurs of all time at WWCD !

- Abhimanyu Aryan, Unity Developer

They are smart women who are trying to make a difference in the tech field. They're really doing something good. Worth praise.

- Sumit Ghosh

I find the sessions by WWC very informative ; plus there are many practical points shared by the speakers. Also I am able to network with people who are pursuing similar interests. Very thankful for their time and effort.

- Preeti S.

A good cause and lots of learning involved. Kudos to the presenter and the WWC team. You people are doing a wonderful job. Hope to attend more events and learn a lot!

- Ginni Dahiya

How can I get involved?

We are always on the lookout for new members (irrespective of gender) who believe in our mission.

What we look for in an ideal team member:

- Initiative : We do not have the time or bandwidth for hand holding
- A good track record of professional success
- Team Player: good mentor and be able to learn and contribute to and from the team
- Be able to juggle multiple hats at all times
- Comfortable and rather excited by rejections and uncertainty
- Willingness to be able learn new things and be able to present lecturers on a technology of your choice

Reach us out at delhi@womenwhocode.com on why could you make a good addition to the team with one small paragraph describing your career and where you are heading and how can Women Who Code Delhi contribute to your goal and what can you give back.
